Product	Description
Butt Steaks	Pork butt is a cut of meat from the shoulder of the pig. The steaks are cut from the thicker section of the shoulder where there is more intense marbling. This makes the "butt" an excellent cut for pulled pork and barbecue. Pkg weight approx 1 to 2 lb each.

Product	Description
Leg Roast	Roasting the leg of pork gives nice lean, uniformly shaped slices. Roast pkg varies in weight from 2 ½ lb to 3 ½ lb.

Product	Description
Picnic Roast	From the front leg of the pig, the lower 'arm' portion of the shoulder is most commonly called the arm picnic. Picnic roast pkg varies in weight from 3 ½ lb to 4 ½ lb.
